Happy New Year.

A new year has begun and we look forward to working with you again this year. On January 7th, all the school children did "Kakizome". This is a traditional Japanese event in which we write our dreams and hopes at the beginning of the new year.

Below is a photograph of us doing "Kakizome". Please look.

By the way, I would like to talk about online communication between our schools which I talked about before.

If possible, I would suggest we do it on February 24th (wednesday) or the following week, from monday to wednesday(March 1 - 3rd). Would this work for you?

I would like for us to introduce each other's schools and towns.

I'm thinking of a simple exchange of English. At our school, we would like to have 5th grade children interact with each other during "Foreign Language (English)" classes.

Since it will be the first time, I suggest we exchange for about 15 to 20 minutes.

If you are available through zoom, I would like to arrange our exchanges through that.

Please let me know what works best for you.

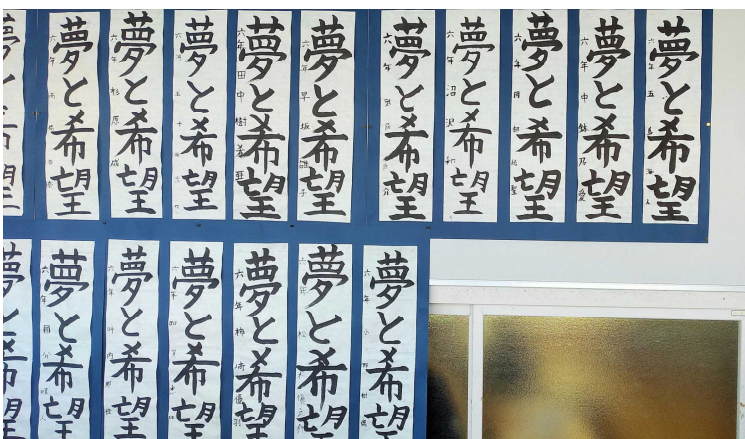

Looking forward to your email. Wishing you all the best.
